GATHERING AND PRAISE

Life in the wilderness was hard enough that the Israelites longed for their old days of slavery -- at least there they had meat! In response, God gave them so much quail to eat, it made them sick. Where are our own appetites out of order? Could God be calling us out of enslavement, into true freedom?

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE

*CALL TO WORSHIP

from Psalms 23, 100, and 95

The Lord is our shepherd.
We have everything we need.

It is God who made us, not we ourselves.
We are the sheep of God's pasture.

O that today we would hearken to God's voice!
Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee,
and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN

O Worship the King

Hymn #57

*OPENING PRAYER

from Psalm 65

O God of our salvation, O Hope of all the ends of the earth — you still the roaring of the seas and the clamor of the peoples.
You visit the earth and water it abundantly.
You prepare the grain, for so you provide for the earth.
Forgive us for our sins, which are stronger than we are.
Transform us into a people who are satisfied with the daily grain you give,
and help us offer bread, daily, to others.
Amen.

PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

FIRST LESSON

Psalm 100:3

Addie Fork (11:00)

Know that the Lord is God.

It is he who made us, and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

The Word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God.

TIME WITH THE YOUNG DISCIPLES (11:00)

SECOND LESSON

Numbers 11 (selected verses from The Message)

The misfits among the people had a craving and soon they had the People of Israel whining, “Why can’t we have meat? We ate fish in Egypt—and got it free!—to say nothing of the cucumbers and melons, the leeks and onions and garlic. But nothing tastes good out here; all we get is manna, manna, manna.”

Manna was a seedlike substance with a shiny appearance like resin. The people went around collecting it and ground it between stones or pounded it fine in a mortar. Then they boiled it in a pot and shaped it into cakes. It tasted like a delicacy cooked in olive oil. When the dew fell on the camp at night, the manna was right there with it.

Moses heard the whining, all those families whining in front of their tents. God’s anger blazed up....

God said to Moses, “...Tell the people, Consecrate yourselves. Get ready for tomorrow when you’re going to eat meat. You’ve been whining to God, ‘We want meat; give us meat. We had a better life in Egypt.’ God has heard your whining and he’s going to give you meat. You’re going to eat meat. And it’s not just for a day that you’ll eat meat, and not two days, or five or ten or twenty, but for a whole month. You’re going to eat meat until it’s coming out your nostrils. You’re going to be so sick of meat that you’ll throw up at the mere mention of it. And here’s why: Because you have rejected God who is right here among you, whining to his face, ‘Oh, why did we ever have to leave Egypt?’”

Moses said, “I’m standing here surrounded by 600,000 men on foot and you say, ‘I’ll give them meat, meat every day for a month.’ So where’s it coming from? Even if all the flocks and herds were butchered, would that be enough? Even if all the fish in the sea were caught, would that be enough?”

God answered Moses, “So, do you think I can’t take care of you? You’ll see soon enough whether what I say happens for you or not.”

So Moses went out and told the people what God had said....

Then Moses and the leaders of Israel went back to the camp. A wind set in motion by God swept quails in from the sea. They piled up to a depth of about three feet in the camp and as far out as a day’s walk in every direction. All that day and night and into the next day the people were out gathering the quail—huge amounts of quail; even the slowest person among them gathered at least sixty bushels. They spread them out all over the camp for drying. But while they were still chewing the quail and had hardly swallowed the first bites, God’s anger blazed out against the people. He hit them with a terrible plague. They ended up calling the place Kibroth Hattaavah (Graves-of-Craving). There they buried the people who craved meat.

The Word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

INVITATION, CONFESSION, AND PARDON (8:30)

Merciful God, we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart.

We have failed to be an obedient church.

We have not done your will, we have broken your law,

we have rebelled against your love,

we have not loved our neighbors,

and we have not heard the cry of the needy.

Forgive us, we pray. Free us for joyful obedience, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pause for silent confession.

Hear the good news:

Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God's love toward us.
In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

Glory to God. Amen.

OFFERTORY

In the Season of Our Plenty

arr. Mark Patterson

Chamber Choir (8:30) Chancel Choir (11:00)

In the season of our plenty, we give thanks on bended knee;

For the goodness of God's bounty, ever thankful we will be.

Alleluia, alleluia, this will be our song of praise.

Alleluia, alleluia, this our joyful hymn we raise!

In the year of Your good pleasure, humbly now we bow in prayer,
Giving thanks for Your good measure, from Your gracious hand we share. Refrain.

In this day of grace and kindness, we rejoice with grateful song;
Thanking God for all His goodness, let the sound of praise be strong! Refrain.

*DOXOLOGY

Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow

Hymn #94

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia!

Praise God, the source of all our gifts! Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!

Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

HOLY COMMUNION (8:30)

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING (sung responses)

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The minister continues

And so, with your people on earth, and all the company of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The minister continues

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

The minister continues

Through your son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy church, all honor and glory are yours, almighty God, now and forever. Amen.

*THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

*RECEIVING THE BREAD AND CUP (Gluten-free elements available)

*PRAYER FOLLOWING COMMUNION

Eternal God, we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us. Grant that we may go into the world in the strength of your Spirit, to give ourselves for others, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SENDING FORTH

*CLOSING HYMN Christ, You Walked Among the Grain Fields BEACH SPRING

Christ, you walked among the grain fields, finding lessons all around:
“Like the harvest that the earth yields, so God’s kingdom will abound.”
“See! A sower goes out planting; some seed grows a hundredfold.”
Here on earth you gave us heaven in the stories that you told.

Lord, you shared God’s kingdom-bounty, yet you know our pain and need.
Some are poor in lands of plenty, often hurt by others’ greed.
Some, possessed by their possessions, look for more to buy and keep;
Others long for simpler blessings: “Let my hungry children eat.”

Lord, you send us out to labor, to pass on the love you give;
City friend and country neighbor work as one so all may live.
Lending land and tools and vision, sharing costs and planting seed —
Work we love becomes our mission as we serve your world in need.

May our harvest celebration build new food security;
As we care for your creation, may we find community.
By your Holy Spirit bless us and may what we grow increase Till the whole world sees new glimpses of your joyful banquet feast.
