arr. Mark Hayes

*CALL TO WORSHIP

We come to celebrate God's blessings to us.

Surely God is in this place!

We come to open ourselves to God's guidance and love.

Surely God is in this place!

We come to see more clearly God's presence in our lives.

Surely God is in this place!

We come to pray, praise, and offer ourselves to God.

Surely God is in this place! Let us worship the Lord!

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN

To God Be the Glory

Hymn #98

*OPENING PRAYER

Through dreams and visions, O God,
you broaden the horizon and hope of your people,
that we may discover the meaning of your covenant,
even in the midst of trial and exile.

Give us the eyes to see your divine presence and the hearts to follow Jesus' command to love our neighbors so that your blessings may extend to all of creation. Amen.

PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

FIRST LESSON

Psalm 8

NRSV

O Lord, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens. Out of the mouths of babes and infants you have founded a bulwark because of your foes, to silence the enemy and the avenger. When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars that you have established; what are humans that you are mindful of them, mortals that you care for them? Yet you have made them a little lower than God and crowned them with glory and honor. You have given them dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under their feet, all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field, the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the seas. O Lord, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

TIME WITH THE YOUNG DISCIPLES

SECOND LESSON

Genesis 28:10-19a

NRSV

Jacob left Beer-sheba and went toward Haran. He came to a certain place and stayed there for the night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place. And he dreamed that there was a stairway set up on the earth, the top of it reaching to heaven, and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. And the Lord stood beside him and said, "I am the Lord, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring, and your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south, and all the families of the earth shall be blessed in you and in your offspring. Know that I am with you and will keep you wherever you go and will bring you back to this land, for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you." Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, "Surely the Lord is in this place—and I did not know it!" And he was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven." So Jacob rose early in the morning, and he took the stone that he had put under his head and set it up for a pillar and poured oil on the top of it. He called that place Bethel, but the name of the city was Luz at the first.

OFFERTORY

People Need the Lord
Chancel Choir

arr. Lloyd Larson

Everyday they pass me by, I can see it in their eyes; Empty people filled with care, headed who knows where.
On they go through private pain, living fear to fear. Laughter hides their silent cries, only Jesus hears.
People need the Lord. People need the Lord. At the end of broken dreams, He's the open door. People need the Lord.
People need the Lord. When will we realize people need the Lord? We are called to take His light, to a world where wrong seems right. What could be too great a cost, for sharing life with one who's lost? Through His love our hearts can feel, all the grief they bear. They must hear the words of life, only we can share.
